DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The Separate Coach Law Passed by the Kentucky Legislature.

In the United States Circuit Court at Owensboro, in the case of W. H. Anderson against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, Judge Barr delivered an opinion overruling the demurrer of the defendant.

The Court holds the Separate Coach Law an interference with Interstate Commerce, and on that account wholly unconstitutional and void as to all passengers.

Anderson, who is a colored preacher, sued to recover $15,000 damages and to test the constitutionality of the Separate Coach Law.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No paper can afford to give advertising of "frogs" free, nor those who proclaim themselves over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business institution. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for in proportion to what part of the paper they appear.

The continued calls upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For all notices of elections, suppers, dinners, fairs, public entertainments, and for other purposes, resolutions of the Board of Directors. The charge FIVE CENTS PER LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule without exception.

This does not include notices of Lodge meetings or church services, which must not exceed ten lines in length.

THE LEDGER has contributed in the way of free advertising to other papers, and for other purposes, resolutions of the Board of Directors. The charge FIVE CENTS PER LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule without exception.

All probability of trouble in the Big Sandy Valley has been avoided by the operators of the Peach Orchard and Torchlight mines voluntarily giving their men an increase of 10 per cent. per ton on the rates.

Judge Alfred E. Cole of this city has been sworn in as a member of the Chancery, Law and Equity and Common Pleas Divisions of the Jefferson Circuit Court. The Judge was presented upon the motion of Judge Harris.

O. V. B. are very significant. When a man gets one of the O. V. B. he gets the very best Razor made. The best Razor is the best of the best blessings allotted to man. Frank Owen Hardware Co. can furnish "the identical self-same."

John McNeely of Sampson, O., was run over by a team and engine and killed a few days ago. Being deaf he could not hear the whistle. His wife is a milliner at that place. Her maiden name was Kincaid. He was an uncle of Professor Kyo of Tollesboro.

We hear it talked around that Maysville is to have a shoe factory sure enough. Already enough money is assured to make a go, and it will be in operation in sixty days. We hope this will not be like the canning factory, but that it will really be started.

The Young Ladies' Prayer-meeting yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. Room was well attended, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. A collection was taken up for Mission Chapel, and hereafter the first Tuesday in each month will be known as collection day for the Mission, and you can give anything from one cent to $100.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he accidentally took on an attack of diarrhea. Having sold Chamberlain's Oats, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to travelling often produces a diarrhea. Every one should procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. For sale by Theo. Power, Druggist.

White Sulphur Springs, a resort on the C. and O. road, was sold Monday for $205,000 to the first mortgage bondholders. It has not been decided when this resort will open for the summer.

Call and see the finest line of Sterling Silver Spoons ever shown in Maysville and lower prices than these goods have ever been offered at P. J. Murphy's the Jeweler, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

One of the richest consignments of thoroughbreds that ever left Kentucky were shipped from Lexington to New York, where they will be sold at auction. They were the property of Thomas C. McDowell, Thomas B. Clay, James B. Clay, John S. Clark and M. D. Richard, son, being the best sires in Kentucky, and out of the most noted dams.

Colonel J. D. Burnett, one of the foremost men of Oldham county, died at Hartfield Monday of heart failure.

Received today direct from California, Port, Sherry and Claret Wine.

G. W. ROGERS & CO.

It is beyond question that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral heads the list of remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs.

Miss Alice Wheeler sends 900 stamps for Miss Dolle Rose. In the collection are some foreign stamps that make it look curious.

In another place will be found the advertisement of Ruggles Campground, for bids for privileges during the coming camp-meeting.

Citizens of Carter county refuse point-blank to pay the railroad tax, the collection of which was recently ordered by the Federal Court.

The country residence of William Carrill, located on the ironworks Pike, five miles from Lexington, was destroyed. No insurance.

We today announce Captain Jacob Miller as a candidate for re-election as Magistrate from District No. 2. The Captain has made an acceptable official and should be elected.

In a night at Pauline Moore, son of Dr. Nathan Moore, out Hughes Toolin, a brother, carved up Moore. The latter received dangerous wounds about the head and neck, which may prove serious.

Mr. Pollett, one of the pupils of the Masonic Academy of the High School, has passed the necessary examination for teachers and received a two-year certificate. This is indeed very gratifying to his teacher, and we are prepared to say that Mr. Pollett is fully capable of now taking charge of a school. The fact has already been demonstrated beyond a doubt that nowhere is there to be found better schools than right here in Maysville, and the teachers are second to none.

After some correspondence over the matter, a committee was appointed from each company to consult and if possible arrange a game.

Monday afternoon was the time dedicated to go out and see which was which.

The Fair Grounds were selected so as to accommodate the long distance batters, and after things had been arranged, arms measured and all weighed, they took the tickets for the park.

After arriving it was found that the necessary hide had been forgotten, and a messenger was dispatched posthaste to town for the ball.

When he arrived back at the park the players were in position, all ready for the struggle.

Bill Yarnall was the Mailman for the Collins & Rudy Wind Beetles, while Charlie Sullivan played the Chamberlain act for Mathew's Dumbells.

The Empire was there in all his glory, with navy hair between him and heaven to impede the progress of his decisions.

The game was called at 3 o'clock sharp, in order to give the sides time to find the ball after the batter had hit it.

At the last part of the ninth inning the umpire called the game, and to his surprise he found that Mathew's Dumbells had made 37 runs, while the Wind Splitters had 27 runs to their credit.

He threw up the bat and they all went home.

The following is a piece of advice to some of our "girls," and we would advise them to heed the warning: "It is said that dancing makes girls' feet large. It is also said that ice cream produces freckles. Doctors are of the opinion that hanging on the front gate produces rheumatism. The chewing of gum distorts the mouth. Playing the piano destroys the beauty of the hands, and washing dishes causes chaps to come—to proprie."

Announcement.

Yielding to the wishes of friends in many quarters of the Ninth Congressional District, I have concluded to submit my name as a candidate for the nomination for Congress, subject to the will of the Republican Convention to be held at Mayville June 12th.

THOMAS A. DAVIS,
Mayville, Ky., May 18th, 1894.

The Free-traders say they want to reduce the Tariff because it would cheapen the necessities of life and thereby benefit poor people. If poor people had money of course cheapness would a good thing for them. But they have not got money, and cannot get it except as they work for it, and if they cannot get employment they cannot get money. No matter how cheap the necessities of life may be it don't benefit people that have no money. Democrats assume that poor people have money. They know this assumption to be false, but they stick to it with a brazen-faced impudence that would shame the devil.

Facts prove beyond the possibility of doubt that cheapness is of secondary consideration,—that employment is of greater importance to poor people than cheapness. When is now down to about forty cents a bushel, and bread cheaper than it has been before for many years, but poor people have not been as abundantly supplied with it the past winter as they were a few years ago when bread was higher and work easier to get. There was plenty of bread all the time last winter, but poor people could not get it, because they could not get employment to earn money with which to buy bread. There is no getting away from this fact, and Democrats ought to be burnt with it till they manifest a sense of shame and sympathy for labor.

Cheap bread without employment did not benefit poor people last winter, and it is plain that cheap clothing without employment would not benefit them; and so of the other necessities of life. It is equally plain that if the Tariff is reduced and our clothing, implements, &c., imported from Europe it will take employment from the working people of the United States. President CLEVELAND and his friends know it would, but they keep right on with their senseless, hypocritical gabble about reducing the Tariff to benefit the poor people. It is to be hoped poor people will not always be thus mocked and tantalized by the authors of their misery.

Cheapness is a good thing for President CLEVELAND and others that have salaries fixed by law, because their salaries remain the same, while the necessities of life have declined in price. Mr. CLEVELAND can supply his family with bread now for one-half what it would have cost a year or so ago, but his salary remains at $6000 a year. The hard times instead of injuring enable him to save money. If his salary and the salaries of Congressmen should be lowered in proportion as wages and the price of farm products go down, then their ardor for Tariff reduction and cheapness would cool off.

Cheapness is also a good thing for people that have money loaned out at interest, because the amount of dollars and rate of interest expressed in the bond or note remains the same, though the price of the necessities of life has declined in some cases one-half. It is only natural that the party that upholds legislation may try to legislate exclusively in the interest of the moneyed classes.

Bread without employment did not benefit poor people last winter, and it is plain that cheap clothing without employment would not benefit them; and so of the other necessities of life. It is equally plain that if the Tariff is reduced and our clothing, implements, &c., imported from Europe it will take employment from the working people of the United States. President CLEVELAND and his friends know it would, but they keep right on with their senseless, hypocritical gabble about reducing the Tariff to benefit the poor people. It is to be hoped poor people will not always be thus mocked and tantalized by the authors of their misery.

Cheapness is a good thing for President CLEVELAND and others that have salaries fixed by law, because their salaries remain the same, while the necessities of life have declined in price. Mr. CLEVELAND can supply his family with bread now for one-half what it would have cost a year or so ago, but his salary remains at $6000 a year. The hard times instead of injuring enable him to save money. If his salary and the salaries of Congressmen should be lowered in proportion as wages and the price of farm products go down, then their ardor for Tariff reduction and cheapness would cool off.

Cheapness is also a good thing for people that have money loaned out at interest, because the amount of dollars and rate of interest expressed in the bond or note remains the same, though the price of the necessities of life has declined in some cases one-half. It is equally natural that the party that upholds legislation may strive to legislate exclusively in the interest of the moneyed classes.
